

Transition from GCSE to A level Spanish

First of all, why study a language? Let us see what employers say about the usefulness of languages at work.

“In an increasingly competitive job market, it is clear that foreign language proficiency adds significant value to a candidate’s portfolio of skills, and gives them a real competitive edge when applying for jobs.”

CBI Education and Skills Survey, 2019

Well done for realising that languages are an essential part of your professional success. Here are a few tips to get you ready for your A Level course whilst you have plenty of time.

You can

- explore Kerboodle to find out which topics you will be studying next year.
- look out for Vocabulary builder on Kerboodle to practise the vocabulary related to each topic.
- revise grammar on languagesonline.org or quizlet: just type chall37 quizlet/ A level Spanish or Y11 Spanish to revise key tenses, especially the preterite in all its forms and direct and indirect object pronouns. The best grammar book at this level is Acción Gramática.
- listen to the news www.20minutes.es
Read an online paper: ABC.es/ El Pais.es/ La Vanguardia.es/ El Diario Montañes

Montañes

- listen to podcasts about worldwide history and famous historical figures with their transcription: www.playcadenaser.com/seccion/ la ventana acontece que no es poco
- cook with a famous Spanish chef: hogamania.com/cocina/cocineros/karlos-arguiñano
- don’t forget to sing covers to popular songs on you tube/ kerlatrics lyrics
- watch some cartoons on you tube such as:

Mafalda

Cerebro Dividido

Cuerdas: 2014 winner of the Goya award for the best Spanish short film animation.

Don Quijote de la Mancha

- watch famous fairy tales in Spanish on you tube; just type fairy tales in Spanish.
- carry out a personal research into any aspect of hispanic life eg: la jota (a traditional Spanish dance), los Alfileres de San Antonio (a cultural tradition in Madrid to do with sewing needles), a controversial recent Spanish law: la Ley Mordaza; a female bullfighter: Cristina Sanchez or a famous flamenco dancer: Joaquin Cortés.
- take a look at the monthly programme of the Instituto Cervantes and join a zoom session.
- read some bilingual versions of famous novels/plays such as Federico García Lorca, Bodas de Sangre or Miguel de Cervantes, Don Quijote de la Mancha etc

Do any of these above that appeal to you and have fun!
